Staying connected

Staying connected

- How do we match the biblical command to “not neglect meeting together” with the government advice to distance ourselves?
- As an eldership we believe it is right and responsible to follow government advice re physical gatherings of people
- So we have to find other ways of connecting as a church family
- Three levels:
 - Individual
 - Home Group
 - Corporate

Individual connection

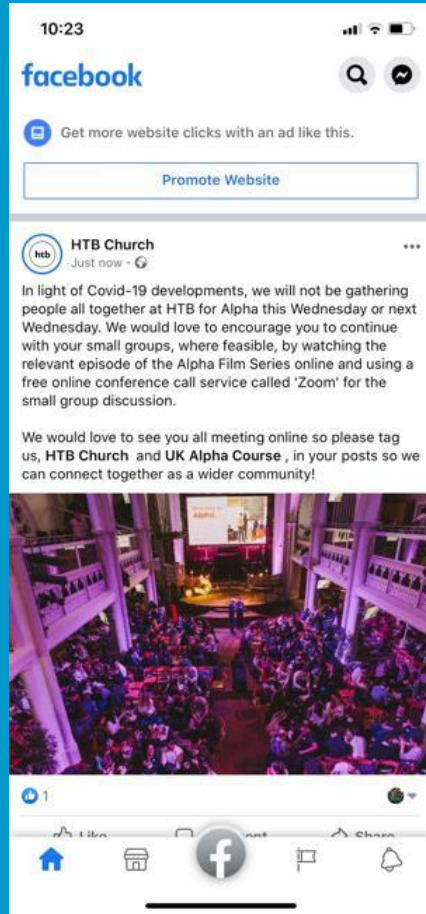

- Our church family need connection and encouragement more than ever
- Be reaching out to others with calls, Facetime, WhatsApp, etc.
- Be encouraging others to do the same
- Keep the church office in the picture with any hardship issues that you become aware of
- Take particular note of older people, people who live alone, those who are self-isolating, and make sure they're looked after

Thursday night Home Groups

- We are going to use Zoom to hold Thursday evening groups
- It allows most people to connect in and be seen and heard.
- Innovate
 - Worship?
 - Games?
 - News?
 - Prayer?
 - Exhortation?

We're in good company!

Sunday morning meetings

- We will build on our experiences of this morning to make this work
- We are exploring worship options – how can we make it work?
- Any ideas you have, please let the office know

Olly Knight from Canterbury church did a live worship session to sing along to today, actually brilliant & did some classics including how great thou art. Think he's doing more. Xx

Encouragement

Psalm 91

1 Whoever dwells in the shelter of the Most High will rest in the shadow of the Almighty. 2 I will say of the LORD, “He is my refuge and my fortress, my God, in whom I trust.” 3 Surely he will save you from the fowler’s snare and from the deadly pestilence. 4 He will cover you with his feathers, and under his wings you will find refuge; his faithfulness will be your shield and rampart. 5 You will not fear the terror of night, nor the arrow that flies by day, 6 nor the pestilence that stalks in the darkness, nor the plague that destroys at midday.

Psalm 91

7 A thousand may fall at your side, ten thousand at your right hand, but it will not come near you. 8 You will only observe with your eyes and see the punishment of the wicked. 9 If you say, “The LORD is my refuge,” and you make the Most High your dwelling, 10 no harm will overtake you, no disaster will come near your tent. 11 For he will command his angels concerning you to guard you in all your ways; 12 they will lift you up in their hands, so that you will not strike your foot against a stone.

Psalm 91

13 You will tread on the lion and the cobra; you will trample the great lion and the serpent. 14 “Because he loves me,” says the LORD, “I will rescue him; I will protect him, for he acknowledges my name. 15 He will call on me, and I will answer him; I will be with him in trouble, I will deliver him and honour him. 16 With long life I will satisfy him and show him my salvation.”

Psalm 91: 9-12

If you say, “The LORD is my refuge,” and you make the Most High your dwelling, no harm will overtake you, no disaster will come near your tent. For he will command his angels concerning you to guard you in all your ways; they will lift you up in their hands, so that you will not strike your foot against a stone.

Our focus for this week

1. Let's make sure God is our place of safety this week
2. As we dwell at home practically, let's dwell in the presence of the Most High - the One who is above all
3. Let's focus on His promises and not the thoughts and fears of people

Three questions to reflect on this week

1. How can we speak out God's goodness and providence in our lives during the week?
2. How can we stay rooted and grounded in His love this week?
3. What promise(s) are we going to hold on to this week?
